DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

Although our customers may be interested in the research and statements of many different frequency device practitioners, the owners of this web site do not adopt any health or disease related claims based on their work or otherwise. Our products are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease. Although our products are designed to aid those with frequency devices none of the protocols or examples given are specific to any company or product even though we may use certain products to demonstrate techniques that are used in the general public. This website must comply with the rules and regulations of the device manufacturer; we do not guarantee nor endorse any products with any specific device companies.

Please understand that www.atp123.com cannot answer any medical questions, therefore we will not discuss any health-related issues via email or otherwise. We will be held harmless in your personal usage of any information disseminated by any representative from this website.

Therefore, we disclaim all health benefits and all such speech in text, emails, email newsletters, letters, etc. We disclaim any health benefits except those approved through clearance from the Food and Drug Administration regarding any device listed.

The content in this web site is intended only for residents of the United States and other jurisdictions where such offers are permitted; all references to products or services apply in the United States and such other jurisdictions only; no offer being made elsewhere. It is not the intent of this site to make any offer in any jurisdiction where such offers are not permitted under international law.

Access to and use of this site are subject to the following terms and conditions and all applicable laws. You may browse this site for personal entertainment and information.
